FORCES OF ALLIES WILL ADVANCE INTO GERMANY

German Delegates Are Informed Penalties Will be Carried Out As Announced

Will Occupy Many German Cities And Impose Tax to Pay Reparation

Counter Proposals of German Delegates Rejected

Conference Adjourns Until Later In The Day And Definite Action is Considered

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — Application of the penalties upon Germany for non-fulfillment of the reparations requirements was decided upon by the Allies here this afternoon.

The penalties in question were announced to the Germans last Thursday by Mr. Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister. They are:

Occupation of the cities of Duisburg, Dusseldorf, and Ruhrort, in the German industrial area beyond the Rhine by troops of the Allies.

Imposition by each Allied country of such a tax upon German imports as it may deem fitting.

The establishment of a customs boundary under allied control along the Rhine.

Mr. Lloyd George informed the Germans today that not only were the proposals made by Foreign Minister Simons this morning unacceptable to the allies, but that notwithstanding the interval since last week's conference the Germans had not made such an advance in their proposition as would justify postponement of the imposition of the penalties.

The British Premier said he must announce on behalf of the Allies a failure to come to even an approximate understanding with the Germans.

"Until we get proposals from Germany that mean a permanent settlement there can be no peace," he declared.

ALLIED TROOPS ENTER GERMANY EARLY TUESDAY

(By Associated Press)

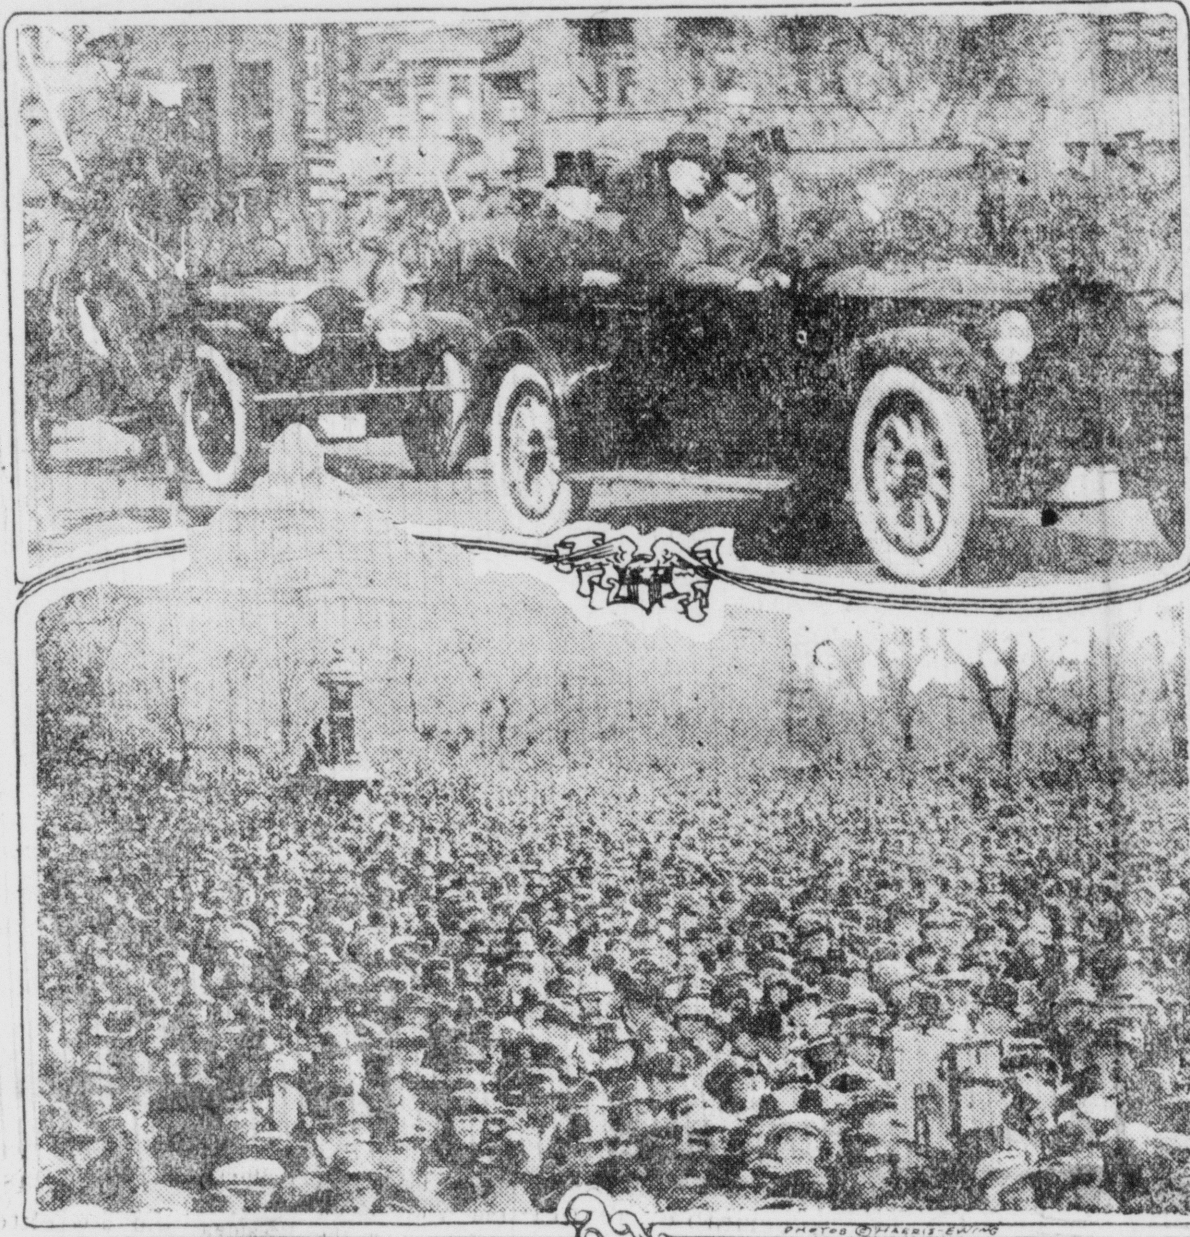

London, March 7. — Allied troops will march into Germany tomorrow, in accordance with the decision of the Allies to inflict on Germany the penalties provided for because of the non-fulfillment of her reparations, it was announced officially this evening.

FRENCH TROOPS NEAR DUSSELDORF

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, March 7. — The first contingent of French troops assigned to participate in the occupation of Dusseldorf is reported to have arrived at Benrath, 6 miles southeast of Dusseldorf.

THE INAUGURAL 'PARADE' WHEN HARDING BECAME PRESIDENT

Above, the auto bearing Wilson and Harding to the inaugural ceremony, escorted by the troop of cavalry, the only hint of pomp or splendor. Below, the thousands standing before the stand to see inauguration.

The simplicity of the procession which traveled from the White House to the capitol to convey Wilson and Harding to the inauguration is clearly shown above. A troop of cavalry was the only official escort. The cavalry rode double file on each side of the presidents' car and the other four in the procession. The then President-elect Harding called for the retiring executive at the White House shortly after 10 a. m. After a brief stay there the ride to the capitol began. The president-elect and president rode in the rear of the first auto. In the auto with them were Rep. Joseph Cannon and Senator Philander Knox, representing congress. Coolidge and Marshall, Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Wilson and the other members of the party followed the machines.

PROPOSALS SHOW LITTLE HEADWAY

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — The conference between the heads of the Allied Governments and representatives of the German Government which began at noon today for discussion of the reparations question took an adjournment at 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 p. m.

The session apparently had not been a satisfactory one, and there were reports before the adjournment that the attempt at an agreement had failed and that the Germans would be informed that the stipulated penalties would be applied.

After the recess had been taken, M. Laurent, the French Ambassador to Berlin, who was present at the sitting, declared there was little doubt that there would be a rupture of the negotiations at the late afternoon sitting of the conference.

Dr. Simons, the German Foreign Minister, presented new German proposals at the first session today. These proposals, which were declared in French quarters to be unacceptable to the Allies, were of a provisional nature, calling for payment of fixed annuities for the first five years.

The Germans said they would have to consult their government and asked a week's adjournment for the purpose if they were required to make proposals covering the total reparations.

Premier Briand of France on leave-ing the conference indicated that the reply of Mr. Lloyd George would be very firm and positive in tone.

"The Allies are perfectly agreed as to what should be said," he added.

In presenting his proposals, the German Foreign Minister expressed agreement with Mr. Lloyd George that the parties which had been condemned by the peace treaty must pay. Dr. Simons contended the payments already made by the Germans should be applied to the reparations account.

He discussed at length the subject of taxation in Germany, quoting statistics to prove that on a per capita basis the Germans were more heavily taxed than the English. After asking Dr. Simons a number of questions Mr. Lloyd George replied:

"I am afraid I must tell Dr. Simons that there is no doubt as to the answer which the Allies must be forced to give. I think it desirable in view of the great gravity of the decision that we should give a reasoned reply to his carefully prepared and clear statement. The interval will also enable us to read a full report of his statement."

GERMANY WILL MAKE AN APPEAL

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — Germany will appeal to the League of Nations against the action of the Allies.

Dr. Simons, in his reply to Mr. Lloyd George, said: "Germany is not a member of the league but she has signed the pact and I therefore announce in the name of the German Government an appeal to the Assembly of the League of Nations against the sanctions, with which we are menaced."

FRENCH PLEASED

Paris, March 7. — The decision of the London conference to impose the penalties on Germany was received with deep satisfaction in French official circles.

MAYOR KILLED AT LIMERICK WIFE WOUNDED

(By Associated Press)

Dublin, Ireland, March 7. — George Clancy, Mayor of Limerick, was shot and killed at his home in that city early this morning and his wife was seriously wounded.

At about the same time, Michael O'Callaghan, former mayor of the city, was also killed at his residence.

Meager reports received here state that Mayor Clancy and his wife were shot about 1:30 o'clock; but owing to the curfew restrictions, members of the household were afraid to venture on the streets to secure aid, and friends with whom they communicated by telephone could not go to the house for the same reason.

CHAMP CLARK LAID AT REST

(By Associated Press)

Bowling Green, Mo., March 7. — Champ Clark was laid at rest after a simple ceremony in the Little Mount Cemetery here today, on what would have been his 71st birthday anniversary.

He was buried beside his father, John Hampton Clark and two of his children, Champ and Anna, who died in infancy.

GERMANS WILL RETURN HOME

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — The German delegation will return to Germany tomorrow. Its members said after the conference that they were not empowered to make any further proposal.

CITY OF PETROGRAD IS BURNING

REBELS ARE CAPTURING MORE CITIES IN RUSSIA

Soviet Leaders Prepare To Flee Claim The Reports Reaching Paris

Rebels Take Oranienbaum On Gulf of Finland

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 7. — Late dispatches from various sources confirm reports that the soviet government of Russia is facing a situation of extreme gravity, and is struggling against a veritable revolutionary movement.

Russian Bolshevik forces have been driven out of Oranienbaum, town on the southern shore of the Gulf of Finland, 19 miles west of Petrograd, by naval units from Kronstadt, says a dispatch from Gibeic. Warships have gone up the Neva river and landed contingents of sailors in Petrograd where parts of a garrison has joined the revolutionaries. The rest of the garrison is declared to have retreated toward Gatchina, 30 miles southwest where Leon Trotsky, minister of war, and the Bolshevik high command has headquarters.

Soviet leaders are terrified and Nikolai Lenine, Bolshevik Premier, and M. Trotsky are preparing for flight, says a Revall dispatch to the Matin.

ARMED FORCES ARE DISMISSED BY COSTA RICA

Accepts Guarantee of America Over Boundary Dispute

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 7. — Orders have been issued by the Costa Rican government for immediate withdrawal of its forces from the disputed territory beyond the Sixola River and for no further advance by its forces on the Pacific side of the Panama-Costa Rican boundary, Dr. Octavio Beech, Costa Rican Minister, here tonight informed the State Department. The information which was imparted.

(By Associated Press) San Jun Del Sur, Nicaragua, March 7. — Disbandment of the Costa Rican army has commenced, says a dispatch from San Jose, capital of Costa Rica today.

The dispatch announces the receipt from the United States Government of the offer of friendly mediation in the controversy between Costa Rica and Panama.

The United States, says the message, guarantees to Costa Rica the expenses occasioned by the conquest and recognizes the frontier established by the award of former President Loubet of France, and Chief Justice White.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS LOWER IN BERGER CASE

(By Associated Press) Washington, March 7. — Refusal of lower courts to issue a mandamus requiring Postmaster General Burleson to restore second class mail privileges of the Milwaukee Leader, Victor Berger's newspaper, was sustained today by the Supreme Court.

The second class mailing privileges of the Leader were withdrawn by Mr. Burleson in 1917 on the ground that articles published in it regarding the purpose of the United States in entering the war were calculated to interfere with the military operations and were in violation of the espionage act.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS CALLED TO WHITE HOUSE

(By Associated Press) Washington, March 7. — Legislative policies of the new administration will be discussed by President Harding with Republican congressional leaders at a dinner tonight at the White House.

Tomorrow the President will preside at the first meeting of his cabinet. The call went out today and the hour was fixed at 11:00 a. m.

It was said the cabinet session would be of a general character and that the President would take up in particular the question of relations with Costa Rica and Panama and the program of the extra session of Congress.

Information and advice received at the dinner tonight is expected to be laid before the cabinet by Mr. Harding, and a definite decision on a date for calling Congress into session may follow.

No definite schedule of cabinet meetings has yet been agreed upon. In the Wilson administration they were held ordinarily on Tuesday, but the impression is that Mr. Harding may desire to have a round table discussion with his advisers more often than once a week.

Vice-President Coolidge accepted today an invitation to attend the cabinet meeting.

HARDING'S HOBBY LENDING A HAND

(By Associated Press) Washington, March 7. — In a short talk this evening at the Nation Press Club's "Hobby Night" entertainment, President Harding declared his favorite hobby was to help the fellow who is down and out.

"That is the finest hobby in the world," he said. "If, in my new responsibility, I can in understanding and sympathy and in stern devotion to country find the touch that transforms the disappointment of yesterday into the fruition of tomorrow, then I shall have practised the dearest hobby in the world."

BLOODY FRAY IN ITALIAN CITY

(By Associated Press) Rome, March 7. — Four persons were killed, a dozen wounded and 200 arrested as the result of a clash between communists and Fascists, or extreme nationalists, in Casale Monferrato, says the Tempo today.

The Fascists, who were, holding a patriotic demonstration, were fired at from a labor office and returned the fire, forcing the communists to surrender.

Official Report Says Rebellion In Former Capital Serious

Soviet Forces Sent From Moscow In Effort to Quell The Rebels

Friendly Reception to Soviet Troops Planned by Rebels

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — The Central News correspondent at Helsingfors reports receipt of news of the most serious character from Petrograd since midnight.

The advices said many of the residential and business quarters were in flames.

The soviet government, the message continued, was dispatching a large number of troops from Moscow to Petrograd to assist in restoring order.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to extend to these troops a friendly reception in the hope of winning them over.

The foregoing dispatches showing the existence of revolt in Petrograd come from official soviet sources, the Moscow wireless service being conducted by the Russian soviet authorities. This official statement that a revolt actually had occurred follows closely recent declarations from highest Russian authorities that no uprising existed in Petrograd.

REBELS ARE BESIEGING PETROGRAD

(By Associated Press)

Helsingfors, Finland, March 7. — The revolutionaries are bombarding Petrograd, and soviet batteries at Systerlek, Revonnena and Tarbovka are bombarding Kronstadt, says a dispatch from Viborg received here.

The fortress at Krasnoya Gorko, the dispatch adds, is participating in the fight; but owing to the fog, it is not known on which side.

37,000 TROOPS ON WAY TO CAPITAL

(By Associated Press)

London, March 7. — A dispatch from Helsingfors says 37,000 men from Kornstadt are marching to Petrograd. The soviet officials have sent Chinese and other troops with artillery to meet them.

The soviet troops tried to get in contact with the rebels across the ice near the suburb of Waschostroff, but the cruiser Petropavlovsk skelled and routed them.

Let Us Hope, Anyway

Our ornamental street intersection traffic signal posts, all but one of them, seem to have met with destruction, complete or partial, but, in any event, sufficient to cause their removal from the streets for some time to come.

The fate of the traffic posts should not have been a surprise to anyone. Destruction, whole or partial, is usually the fate that overtakes neglected things.

It is too bad that our city officials didn't take the traffic posts seriously and, by proper lighting and painting, protect them against the fate which comes to obstacles in the street or roadway not clearly discernable to vehicle drivers. If there has been any effort made to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed traffic posts in which we were just beginning to take pride, it has not been announced. We seem to have returned comfortably and contentedly to the old clothes horse posts and smoky lanterns.

Maybe when good weather comes to stay and the lethargy of winter passes away, our city officials will be stirred by the ambitions of the season and take action to put proper traffic posts at the street intersections. Perhaps they will. Let us hope so anyway as long as we have any reason to hope.

We were a long long time getting the posts in the first instance but having seen what they meant to the city perhaps the second coming will not be so long delayed.

Signs of The Time

The birds have come back to us from the southland in great numbers and earlier than usual too. Of course, like all general weather condition prognosticators, these same birds may be mistaken if we make too local an application of the prophecy of their early arrival. They may be fooled with few cold days and, possibly, some snow and sleet hereabouts, but their coming, judging by the past, heralds an early spring.

There is another sign of spring which must not be overlooked, and that is the arrival of "marbles." On almost every place that is level enough to mark out a ring the small boys (some large ones, too) are busy playing the game.

Before settled warm weather arrives, unless there is a decided change this year from past years, there will be many grimy little fists, "chopped" hands and skinned knuckles, but the sign of the time is unmistakable.

Already the birds have begun their spring building and housecleaning and some of the good housewives are exhibiting indications of restlessness—a desire to get into the work of housecleaning and "have it over with," while the male members of the household are assuming a worried and hunted look which only comes with the approach of housecleaning.

Yes, we seem to be near to that time of the year when all nature wakens, rested and ready to begin work again, but we must not be discouraged if, with the early birds, we are surprised by a few blustery cold days. March has a reputation of lifting us up to the heights and then giving us a drop.

Another War

Costa Rica and Panama, after muttering for some time over disputed boundary lines, are now at war. While this war between two Central American nations, coming as it does, after the gigantic horrors of the world conflict, may seem rather minature and inconsequential, yet to the nations and the people involved it is a real struggle.

Neither one of the nations involved is as large, in territorial extent, as one of our smallest Central States, while neither has a total population equal to one of our second string cities, with no army and no navy, yet the clash is on in deadly earnest.

Both Costa Rica and Panama have been quick to adopt the prevailing idea—the United States is to blame.

It has become a custom during the last four or five years to place the blame on the United States for everything that goes wrong and to expect the United States to foot the bills too.

The banana plantation and goat farm nations of Central America have taken the hint from the larger nations and are occupied more in abusing this nation than they are in fighting each other.

FARMER FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Harley Clay, farmer residing nine miles south of this city on the Leesburg pike, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Nelson on a serious charge preferred by William McCann, father of sixteen-year-old Declie McCann.

The crime of which Clay is charged, is alleged to have been committed Saturday afternoon during the absence of the father, and when the father learned of the alleged crime he appeared before Probate Judge Gregg and filed a charge.

When Sheriff Hall and Deputy Nelson went to Clay's home Monday morning it was learned that he had come to this city on business, and a watch was kept for the man.

In default of $500 bond Clay was taken to the county jail and his hearing set for nine o'clock Tuesday morning.

THINGS TO SEE IN THE SPRINGTIME

By Ernest Thompson Seton.

STORY OF THE WHITE DAWNSINGER, OR HOW THE BLOOD-ROOT CAME.

(Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The song of the White Dawnsinger

Have you noticed that there are no snow-white birds in our woods during summer? Mother Carey long ago made it a rule, that all snow-white land-birds should go north, when the snow was gone in the springtime. And they are quite obedient; they flew, keeping just on the south edge of the melting snow.

But it so happened, that one of the sweetest singers of all—the Snow-white Dawnsinger with the golden bill and the ruby legs—was flying northward with his bride, when she sprained her wing so she could not fly at all.

There was no help for it; they must stay in that thicket till her wing grew strong again.

The other white birds flew on, but the Dawnsinger waited. He sang his merriest songs to cheer her. He brought her food, and he warned her when enemies were near.

A moon had come and gone. Now she was well again, and strong on the wing. He was anxious to go on to their northern home. A second warning came from Mother Carey, "White Birds Go North."

But the sunny woods became very pleasant, food was abundant, and the little white lady said, "Why should we go northward when it is so much nicer here?"

"The Dawnsinger felt the same way, and the next time the warning came, 'White birds go north,' he would not listen at all, and they settled down to a joyous life in the woods.

They did not know anything about Yellow-eyed Whizz. They never would have known had they gone north at their right time. But the Yellow-eyed Whizz was coming. It came, and it always goes straight after white things in the woods, for brown things it cannot see.

Dawnsinger was high on a tree, praising the light in a glorious song that he had just made up, when it singled him out by his whiteness and pierced him through.

He fell, fluttering and dying; and as she flew to him, with a cry of distress, the Yellow-eyed Whizz struck her down by his side.

The Chewinks scratched leaves over the two white bodies, and—I think—that Mother Carey dropped a tear on the place.

That was the end of the White Dawnsinger and his bride. Yet every year, at the same place, as the snow goes, the brown leaves move and part, and up from beneath there comes a beautiful white flower.

Its bloom threads are yellow like the Dawnsinger's beak, and its stem is ruby like his legs; all the rest is snow-white like his plumes. It rises looks, about, faces the sun and sings a little adour-song, a little aroma-lay. If you will look deep down into the open soul of the Dawnsinger, you will see the little golden thoughts he sings about. Then up from the same grave comes another, just the same, but a little smaller.

GOVERNOR OF RESERVE BOARD TO RETAIN POST

Retains Harding, Democrat, And Restores Public Confidence In Non-Partisan Character Of Board

President Takes This Post Out Of Politics

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1921)

Washington, March 5.—The Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, W. P. G. Harding, who is a Democrat, appointed by Wilson from Birmingham, Ala., will not be expected to resign by President Harding, and will not take the office of president of a private bank for foreign trade, but will continue in his position until the end of his term in 1922, and, it may confidently be expected, will then be re-appointed for another ten-year term.

In this news there is cause for great satisfaction. Within the past few weeks it has been apprehended, and very frequently im-plied in the news, that the dignity and permanence of the Federal Reserve Board was menaced in two ways.

For one it has been taken for granted that President Harding would regard the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board the same as Cabinet members, diplomats and others; would expect him to resign and would fill the office with a Republican. In fact scores of names of Republicans have been mentioned for the post.

But President Harding, on the suggestion of some of his advisers, has determined to take advantage of his opportunity to emphasize the non-partisan character of this institution and to create for it that most important tradition of dignity and immunity from politics that is attached to the Supreme Court of the United States.

In the opinion of thoughtful persons desirous that the Federal Board should have the authority and the public confidence that go with acknowledged impartiality, this is one of the finest things in President Harding's conduct of the beginnings of his administration. One other apprehension arising out of news that has figured importantly in the papers recently is removed by this same attitude of President Harding.

Some months ago it was announced that a group of bankers was forming a $105,000,000 corporation for foreign trade, and that as soon as the formation should be completed they would offer the presidency of it to Governor Harding of the Reserve Board.

This seemed to threaten to make out of the governorship of the Federal Reserve Board one of these less dignified and ephemeral Federal offices in which men serve for a brief time, in order to acquire experience, and even then capitalize that experience by accepting office in private corporations at very much larger incomes.

Creating Public Confidence
If the Federal Reserve Board which is still comparatively in its beginnings, should become fixed in custom in the public mind as this kind of a body, it would be unfortunate. The thing to aspire to is that the Federal Reserve Board should be regarded with the same confidence and as having the same sanctity as the Supreme Court.

No private corporation would dream of trying to take a justice of the Supreme Court off the bench by an offer of many times his present salary.

Of course, the suggestion of the Foreign Trading Corporation was justified to a degree by the expectation that the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board would be out of office anyhow because of the assumption that an incoming Republican President would expect his resignation. President Harding's attitude on this point, however clears away all the apprehension.

In the course of time there will be minor statutory changes in the management of the Federal Reserve Board. The two ex-officio members—the Secretary of the Treasury and the Controller of the Currency—who are necessarily political, will probably be removed from the board and by that act it will become possible to make the board a more and more purely non-partisan board.

It is probable that in time the length of the term of members of the board will be increased to twelve years, and this approximation to the permanency of tenure which is enjoyed by justices of the Supreme Court will go that much further in the direction of increasing the dignity of the board and the public confidence in it.

It is essential that the part of Gov. W. P. G. Harding in this situation should be recognized. Everybody knows that he could make many times his official salary by going into private banking. That he should be willing to make the sacrifice in order to play in this new institution something of the part that John Marshall played in giving authority and direction to the Supreme Court in its beginnings is a fine bit of public service.

OFFICERS VISIT RESIDENCE TO LOOK FOR BREW

Find Suspicious Indications Of Home Brew But Captive Denies Any Crime.

Intoxicated Man Gives Tip To Police — Investigation Under Way.

As a result of the arrest in this city of one Tom Landley, said to be a feather mattress agent, charged with intoxication, Sheriff N. B. Hall and Chief of Police D. L. Moore, Saturday went to the home of John Stratenberger, of near Seiden, in search of a "home brew" outfit and corn juice, and taking Stratenberger in tow for the time being, later releasing him on his own recognizance while further investigation is made.

According to the story told by Landley he was accompanied to Seiden by another fellow from this city, and purchased a quart of "home brew" from some man whose name he did not know. As result of the description given the officers went to Stratenberger's place, and there found in a shed back of the house a barrel that they claim has a real "home brew" odor, and also found a quantity of soured meal in the back yard. The barrel was brought to this city until a complete investigation can be made.

Stratenberger was not located until late in the evening and claimed he had found the barrel in the roadway, and that the meal had been thrown out because it had been spoiled.

Meanwhile the investigation is continuing and may develop some interesting complications before it is finished, it is stated.

YOUNG STUDENT LAID TO REST

There was extreme sadness in the funeral services held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the M. E. Church at Good Hope for Francis A. Murry, the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Murry.

The funeral was one of the largest held in the M. E. Church and was attended from far and near by the host of friends with whom the boy had been extremely popular.

Rev. Moffet conducted the services and his sermon was a message of hope for the sorrowing family. He also read the obituary.

A quartet whose members were Mrs. S. E. Boggs, Mrs. Dale Murry, Mr. Charles Lyle and Mr. Charles Jones, sang several hymns.

Eight small boys were honorary pallbearers and carried flowers. Samuel Parrett, Marion Rife, Walter Boyer, Wendell Boyer, Harry Rife, Donald Rife, William Freshour, and Charles Jones.

Pallbearers were eight close friends. Harry Ashbaugh, Mortimer York, Samuel Day, Harold Rodgers, Walter Free, and Dwight Winkle.

Burial was made in the Good Hope cemetery.

STAGE SUCCESS AT WONDERLAND

"Kismet," Otis Skinner's remarkable stage success, and the one chosen by him to make his debut in motion pictures, is one of the most magnificent productions screened. It is a gorgeous spectacle, filled with fascinating harem girls and intensive dramatic action against a background of beautiful Oriental splendor.

Manager Johnson feels that he is bringing to Washington a bona fide attraction in this Robertson-Cole super-spectacle, which is now showing at the Wonderland Theater and will be continued through Wednesday, with a matinee each day.

Otis Skinner achieved the greatest success of his celebrated career in this colorful masterpiece of the stage. The action of the play is set in the Asiatic city of Bagdad and for its screening was built "The Magic City" of California, a perfect replica of the Oriental city. The interior sets are even more lavish and beautiful than the exterior ones and the costumes are a riot of color. Kismet's production cost ran well over $500,000.

The huge cast of characters is all that could be desired with Rosemary Theby as the fascinating queen of the harem.

FINAL SERVICE FOR WM. SOLLARS

At the home near Good Hope funeral services that were attended by an unusually large group of sorrowing friends and relatives were held for Mr. William Sollars, prominent farmer who passed away Friday morning.

Rev. Moffet, of the Good Hope M. E. Church, had the services in charge and his words were largely concerned with the past life and character of Mr. Sollars and his activities in his home community.

Hymns were sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. Moffet, Mrs. Dale Murry, Mr. Charles Jones and Mr. Charles Lyle. There were many beautiful flowers.

Following the services burial was made in the Good Hope cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Sam A. John, Harry, Leslie, William, and Hugh Sollars.

Eleven children survive, six daughters, Nannie, Anna, Edith, Emma, Mae, and Augusta, and five sons, William, Leslie, Harry, John and Sam A.

Let Us Hope, Anyway

Our ornamental street intersection traffic signal posts, all but one of them, seem to have met with destruction, complete or partial, but, in any event, sufficient to cause their removal from the streets for some time to come.

The fate of the traffic posts should not have been a surprise to anyone. Destruction, whole or partial, is usually the fate that overtakes neglected things.

It is too bad that our city officials didn't take the traffic posts seriously and, by proper lighting and painting, protect them against the fate which comes to obstacles in the street or roadway not clearly discernable to vehicle drivers. If there has been any effort made to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed traffic posts in which we were just beginning to take pride, it has not been announced. We seem to have returned comfortably and contentedly to the old clothes horse posts and smoky lanterns.

Maybe when good weather comes to stay and the lethargy of winter passes away, our city officials will be stirred by the ambitions of the season and take action to put proper traffic posts at the street intersections. Perhaps they will. Let us hope so anyway as long as we have any reason to hope.

We were a long long time getting the posts in the first instance but having seen what they meant to the city perhaps the second coming will not be so long delayed.

Signs of The Time

The birds have come back to us from the southland in great numbers and earlier than usual too. Of course, like all general weather condition prognosticators, these same birds may be mistaken if we make too local an application of the prophecy of their early arrival. They may be fooled with few cold days and, possibly, some snow and sleet hereabouts, but their coming, judging by the past, heralds an early spring.

There is another sign of spring which must not be overlooked, and that is the arrival of "marbles." On almost every place that is level enough to mark out a ring the small boys (some large ones too) are busy playing the game.

Before settled warm weather arrives, unless there is a decided change this year from past years, there will be many grimy little fists, "chopped" hands and skinned knuckles, but the sign of the time is unmistakable.

Already the birds have begun their spring building and housecleaning and some of the good housewives are exhibiting indications of restlessness—a desire to get into the work of housecleaning and "have it over with," while the male members of the household are assuming a worried and hunted look which only comes with the approach of housecleaning.

Yes, we seem to be near to that time of the year when all nature wakens, rested and ready to begin work again, but we must not be discouraged if, with the early birds, we are surprised by a few blustery cold days. March has a reputation of lifting us up to the heights and then giving us a drop.

Another War

Costa Rica and Panama, after muttering for some time over disputed boundary lines, are now at war. While this war between two Central American nations, coming as it does, after the gigantic horrors of the world conflict, may seem rather miniature and inconsequential, yet to the nations and the people involved it is a real struggle.

Neither one of the nations involved is as large, in territorial extent, as one of our smallest Central States, while neither has a total population equal to one of our second string cities, with no army and no navy, yet the clash is on in deadly earnest.

Both Costa Rica and Panama have been quick to adopt the prevailing idea—the United States is to blame.

It has become a custom during the last four or five years to place the blame on the United States for everything that goes wrong and to expect the United States to foot the bills too.

The banana plantation and goat farm nations of Central America have taken the hint from the larger nations and are occupied more in abusing this nation than they are in fighting each other.

FARMER FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Harley Clay, farmer residing nine miles south of this city on the Leesburg pike, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Nelson on a serious charge preferred by William McCann, father of sixteen-year-old Declie McCann.

The crime of which Clay is charged, is alleged to have been committed Saturday afternoon during the absence of the father, and when the father learned of the alleged crime he appeared before Probate Judge Gregg and filed a charge.

When Sheriff Hall and Deputy Nelson went to Clay's home Monday morning it was learned that he had come to this city on business, and a watch was kept for the man.

In default of $500 bond Clay was taken to the county jail and his hearing set for nine o'clock Tuesday morning.

THINGS TO SEE IN THE SPRINGTIME

By Ernest Thompson Seton.

STORY OF THE WHITE DAWN SINGER, OR HOW THE BLOOD-ROOT CAME.

(Copyright, 1921, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The story of the White Dawnsinger

Have you noticed that there are no snow-white birds in our woods during summer? Mother Carey long ago made it a rule, that all snow-white land-birds should go north, when the snow was gone in the springtime. And they are quite obedient; they flew, keeping just on the south edge of the melting snow.

But it so happened, that one of the sweetest singers of all—the white Dawnsinger with the bill and the ruby legs—was northward with his bride, when she sprained her wing so she could not fly at all.

There was no help for it; they must stay in that thicket till her wing grew strong again.

The other white birds flew on—but the Dawnsinger waited. He sang his merriest songs to cheer her. He brought her food, and he warned her when enemies were near.

A moon had come and gone. Now she was well again, and strong on the wing. He was anxious to go on to their northern home. A second warning came from Mother Carey. "White Birds Go North."

But the sunny woods were very pleasant, food was abundant, and the little white lady said, "Why should we go northward when it is so much nicer here?"

"The Dawnsinger felt the same way, and the next time the warning came, 'White birds go north,' he would not listen at all, and they settled down to a joyous life in the woods.

They did not know anything about Yellow-eyed Whizz. They would have known had they gone north at their right time. Yellow-eyed Whizz was coming. It came, and it always goes straight after white things in the woods, for brown things it cannot see.

Dawnsinger was high on a tree, praising the light in a glorious song that he had just made up, when it singled him out by his whiteness and pierced him through.

He fell, fluttering and dying; and as she flew to him, with a cry of distress, the Yellow-eyed Whizz struck her down by his side.

The Chewinks scratched leaves over the two white bodies, and I think that Mothey Carey dropped a tear on the place.

That was the end of the White Dawnsinger and his bride. Yet every year, at the same place, as the snow goes, the brown leaves move, and part, and up from beneath there comes a beautiful white flower—like the Dawnsinger's beak, and its stem is ruby like his legs; all the rest is snow-white like his plumes. It rises, looks, about, faces the sun and sings a little adour-song, a little aroma-a-lay.

If you will look deep down into the open soul of the Dawnsinger, you will see the little golden thoughts he sings about. Then up from the same grave comes another, just the same, but a little smaller.

GOVERNOR OF RESERVE BOARD TO RETAIN POST

Retains Harding, Democrat, And Restores Public Confidence In Non-Partisan Character Of Board

President Takes This Post Out Of Politics

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1921)

Washington, March 5.—The Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, W. P. G. Harding, who is a Democrat, appointed by Wilson from Birmingham, Ala., will not be expected to resign by President Harding, and will not take the office of president of a private bank for foreign trade, but will continue in his position until the end of his term in 1922, and, it may confidently be expected, will then be re-appointed for another ten-year term. In this news there is cause for great satisfaction.

Within the past few weeks it has been apprehended, and very frequently implied in the news, that the dignity and permanence of the Federal Reserve Board was menaced in two ways.

For one it has been taken for granted that President Harding would regard the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board the same as Cabinet members, diplomats and others; would expect him to resign and would fill the office with a Republican. In fact scores of names of Republicans have been mentioned for the post.

But President Harding, on the suggestion of some of his advisers, has determined to take advantage of his opportunity to emphasize the non-partisan character of this institution and to create for it that most important tradition of dignity and immunity from politics that is attached to the Supreme Court of the United States.

In the opinion of thoughtful persons desirous that the Federal Board should have the authority and the public confidence that go with acknowledged impartiality, this is one of the finest things in President Harding's conduct of the beginnings of his administration. One other apprehension arising out of news that has figured importantly in the papers recently is removed by this same attitude of President Harding.

Some months ago it was announced that a group of bankers was forming a $105,000,000 corporation for foreign trade, and that, as soon as the formation should be completed they would offer the presidency of it to Governor Harding of the Reserve Board.

This seemed to threaten to make out of the governorship of the Federal Reserve Board one of these less dignified and ephemeral Federal offices in which men serve for a brief time, in order to acquire experience, and even then capitalize that experience by accepting office in private corporations at very much larger incomes.

Creating Public Confidence
If the Federal Reserve Board which is still comparatively in its beginnings, should become fixed in custom in the public mind as this kind of a body, it would be unfortunate. The thing to aspire to is that the Federal Reserve Board should be regarded with the same confidence and as having the same sanctity as the Supreme Court.

No private corporation would dream of trying to take a justice of the Supreme Court off the bench by an offer of many times his present salary.

Of course, the suggestion of the Foreign Trading Corporation was justified to a degree by the expectation that the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board would be out of office anyhow because of the assumption that an incoming Republican President would expect his resignation. President Harding's attitude on this point, however, clears away all the apprehension.

In the course of time there will be minor statutory changes in the management of the Federal Reserve Board. The two ex-officio members—the Secretary of the Treasury and the Controller of the Currency—who are necessarily political, will probably be removed from the board and by that act it will become possible to make the board a more and more purely non-partisan board.

It is probable that in time the length of the term of members of the board will be increased to twelve years, and this approximation to the permanency of tenure which is enjoyed by justices of the Supreme Court will go that much farther in the direction of increasing the dignity of the board and the public confidence in it.

It is essential that the part of Gov. W. P. G. Harding in this situation should be recognized. Everybody knows that he could make many times his official salary by going into private banking. That he should be willing to make the sacrifice in order to play in this new institution something of the part that John Marshall played in giving authority and direction to the Supreme Court in its beginnings is a fine bit of public service.

CHICKENS SHOW GREAT APPETITE

How many grains of corn can a rooster and five hens eat in thirty minutes? That was the question which perplexed citizens of New Holland Saturday because of a unique contest being staged by a grocer.

The six chickens were placed in a show window and corn in one hundred grain lots was given to them. They had not been fed since the night before and were ravenously hungry.

The fowls ate ten grains of the fifteenth lot and then stopped. The count was 1410.

One woman had placed the number of grains at 1409.

ELKS LODGE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS

Washington Lodge of B. P. O. Elks, of which Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty is a member, Saturday sent the following telegram of congratulations to the most distinguished member of the local lodge:

"Washington Lodge B. P. O. E. sends hearty congratulations.

R. R. KIBLER, Ex. Ruler."

A. C. Billman, of Indiana, who says Tanlac is unquestionably the great Medicine he ever heard of "It put me back on my feet after I had practically given up all hope of ever being well again," he states.

"Tanlac is unquestionably the greatest medicine I ever heard of. After I had practically given up all hope of ever being well again, I put me right back on my feet, and I am feeling one hundred per cent better than I have for twenty years. I have gained ten pounds in weight, and every one says I don't look like the same person.

"For several months I suffered from a serious stomach disorder. I had no appetite and couldn't eat enough to keep up my strength. Very often when I sat down to a meal I would leave the table without touching anything scarcely, as I could not bear the sight of food, much less eat it.

"I was losing in weight and my friends would often ask me: 'What is wrong with you? Why you are looking so thin?'

"I also suffered terrible with pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys. It was almost impossible for me to get out of bed in the morning, as my back would pain me so I would almost fall over when I would first stand up in the morning. At night my back pained me so it was almost impossible for me to sleep. I would lie first on one side and then on the other, and would roll and toss all night long. I had almost given up and thought maybe my age was against me, as I had taken so many different kinds of medicine without results.

"The first bottle of Tanlac didn't help me much, but I made up my mind to give it a fair trial. After starting on the second bottle I began to feel better. My appetite returned and it just looked like I could hardly wait for meal time to come. In fact, I was hungry all the time.

"My back and kidneys don't bother me any more and I can sleep like a log now. Tanlac has simply made a new man of me, and anyone living in this county can tell you the same thing, as everybody knows me and knows the shape I was in."

The above statement was made recently by A. C. Billman, of Ligonier, Ind. Mr. Billman has lived in Noble County all his life and is a well-known and highly-respected citizen of that county.

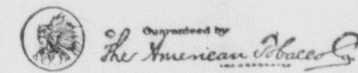

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by J. W. Murphy and in Mill-edgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Orman Selden.—Adv't.

M'CLAIN PUT OUT TWO DAYTON TEAMS TO DECIDE TITLE

Showing Made By South-Central Ohio Teams In Big Tournament Was Exceptional.

After going to the semi-finals in the fifth round of the State Basketball Tournament at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, McClain High School of Greenfield fell a victim to the same school which eliminated Washington High and was defeated by Cambridge in a close game 14 to 11.

That McClain High and Washington did not go down before light opposition is shown by the fact that Cambridge played in the finals and lost to Dayton Stivers.

At the same time McClain was being eliminated Xenia High; which many had predicted would go to the finals was being put out of the running by Delaware, 13 to 10.

In the final round of the tournament Steele of Dayton defeated Cambridge, 22 to 3, and Stivers of Dayton triumphed over Delaware, 12 to 6.

The championship of southern Ohio rests with Steele and Stiver. They meet next Saturday to decide the title. The two teams from the northern division will also meet. Mt. Vernon and Woodward Tech. of Toledo will determine which is the best suited to meet the Southern Ohio champions.

South-central Ohio Association schools are proud over the showing the teams made in the state tournament. McClain and Xenia made the strongest bid of any team for this part of the state in years to battle the northern division teams for high est honors.

CHILD FALLS BENEATH PLOW

Tractor. Plow Wheel. Passes Over Body and Boy's Condition is Said to Be Serious.

Internal injuries, the seriousness of which has not been definitely determined, were sustained Saturday afternoon by little John Stevens, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stevens, when he fell from a tractor and the wheel of the plow passed over him, on the Cline farm five miles north of Bloomingburg.

The child was riding on the tractor with his father when he fell between the plows and a wheel of the carriage passed over him.

The condition of the child is said to be serious. First examinations have not disclosed the extent of the injuries.

GENUINE "IRENE" AT THE MURPHY

Discriminating theater goers will have an opportunity to witness the much heralded and long waited for engagement of the Vanderbilt Producing Company's production of the great international musical comedy success, "Irene" which comes to the Murphy Theater, Wilmington, Thursday, March 10.

"Irene" is an American product, written by James Montgomery, with music by Harry Tierney and Lyrics by Joseph McCarthy. It was produced at the Vanderbilt Theater in New York something over a year ago, and is still playing to capacity business at the popular playhouse. It has since been presented at the Empire theater in London, also in Paris and Melbourne, Australia, where three American companies are duplicating the success the piece has made in this country. "Irene" tells a pretty love story with scenes laid in New York City. It has 20 catchy musical numbers and will be offered in Wilmington with a cast of players each and every one of whom have been seen in the New York company where they had their tryouts before being signed for the present tour. The production is identical with that playing in the metropolis, the same lavish hand having seen that nothing shown in the original presentation of the piece was omitted. A special symphony orchestra is carried by the company. This will be the highest class attraction ever offered in Wilmington.

LITTLE ITALY HONORS HERO

New York, March 5.—Residents of "Little Italy," on Manhattan's lower East Side, today motored behind the $4,000 bronze casket of Roco Kranko, World War veteran, one victim of a mysterious double shooting near his home Tuesday night.

The cost of the most imposing funeral the foreign colony ever has known was estimated at more than $15,000. A cortege of 150 automobiles with two bands was in line, while thousands followed the procession as it wound its way through narrow streets.

Scores of floral pieces, some eight feet high banked the entrance of the little church where the services was conducted.

Thus "Little Italy" remembers its war heroes.
